

Privacy statement for subscribers to WIP's investor letter

11.4.2022

WIP Asset Management Ltd (later WIP) protects your privacy

In light of the data protection legislation (GDPR), we would like to take the opportunity to inform you about how your personal data is handled by us and what rights you have as a subscriber to WIP's investor letter. Our investor letter is a general financial review that is sent approximately 2–3 times a year. We are sending you this information because you have either asked us or given your consent to send investor letters.

Collection of personal data. We only collect data from the subscriber. We collect the following information: name, address, e–mail address, telephone number and any company and position within the company.

Purpose of processing the personal data. We process your personal data to send investor letters.

The legal transfer of personal data. Your personal data is not disclosed to third parties.

Protection of personal information. When handling and protecting personal data, we follow the law as well as the instructions and regulations of the authorities. We have taken appropriate technical, organizational, and administrative security measures to protect the information we have against loss, misuse and unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration and destruction.

Right to request access to your personal data. You have the right to access any personal data we hold about you.

Right to request correction of personal data. If the personal data is incorrect or incomplete, you have the right to request correction of the data, unless the legislation or other statute limits

Right to request erasure. You always have the right to request that your information be deleted from the register of those who receive market considerations. Please note that if you were previously our customer, we may still have an obligation to save your data in our customer register because of the legislation.

Storage period for personal data. We save your data as long as you subscribe to our investor letter.

If you wish to contact WIP regarding the handling of your personal data, you are most welcome to contact our customer service wip@wip.fi or our data protection officer annika.hilli@wip.fi.

You can be in contact with the data ombudsman's office if you have objections regarding how we store your data.

Cookies

We collect, process, and analyze data about the use of our website (www.wip.fi). Online traffic generates data related to website visitors and data processed in computer networks to send, distribute, or make messages available. We use cookies to track the website's user count and the website's analytics. You can specify in your browser settings if you do not want to allow cookies.